

COLLEGE OF INSURANCE
INSURANCE INSTITUTE OF INDIA, MUMBAI
INTERNATIONAL GENERAL INSURANCE PROGRAM

Program-ID: - IPG26

(From: 26th November – 08th December, 2018)

Relevance of the Program:-

General Insurance has always been a challenging area, in terms of its variety of products and close linkage to the on- ground realities of industry, trade and human behavior. It offers a vast spectrum of learning opportunities for insurance professionals and requires them to learn continuously. Market challenges that follow liberalization pose specific challenges in different markets and require insurance executives to develop new insights and underwriting skills in each class of business in fast moving markets.

For conquering these challenges, one should be in constant touch with the fundamentals and learn from the experiences of markets that have faced changes; India, being one of them. Policy design, rate making, claim handling, trends in reinsurance and the laws that govern the business- all these have to be looked into. While incorporating these aspects, the program will also provide chances for interactions and discussions to give the participants fresh insights on market scenarios.

Program Objective:-

- ✓ Review and relook at the fundamentals of insurance in relation with the present day market
- ✓ Review the processes involved in managing risks
- ✓ Relook at the roles and functions of underwriters, risk engineers and loss assessors in today's market
- ✓ Update and enhance the understanding of different types of insurance policies in fire, marine, motor, engineering, liability and other miscellaneous classes
- ✓ Deliberate on Business Interruption Insurance
- ✓ Discuss concerns relating to Industrial All Risks, and Mega Risks insurance packages
- ✓ Discuss reinsurance practice
- ✓ Appreciation of new approaches in claims management
- ✓ Deliberations on importance of risk inspections in the present market
- ✓ Developing new products – concerns
