Relevance of the Program:-

Claims in Health Insurance are often seen only in financial terms, i.e. as claims ratios and financials of the company. Though the financial and administrative angles of health claims are important, there is a technical angle to the subject; that of understanding the claim as a medical risk. A medical risk has to be assessed and managed in a scientific manner to give a better deal for the insurer and value for money to the customer in the long run. Through this course, the College of Insurance addresses the need of insurance practitioners to appreciate health claims from multiple angles.

Program Objective:-

- ✓ Analyse the medical necessity and appropriateness of health care
- ✓ Loss assessment, prevention and reduction
- ✓ Pre-authorization / Pre-approval / Pre-admission / investigation - process
- ✓ Evaluating the appropriateness of admission/treatment/investigation/length of stay/discharge situations
- ✓ Using technology / trend from medical records, data and part studies for formulating strategies
- ✓ Controlling fraud through clinical audit, better processes and technology
- ✓ Understanding fraud from the point of view of multiple stakeholders

Participant Profile:-

The course focuses on professionals dealing with health claims in insurance companies, TPAs, Brokers, III Associates/Fellows and other interested persons who have a fair awareness of Health Insurance.
