

College of Insurance
Insurance Institute of India, Mumbai
Classroom Training Session on Reinsurance Treaty and Facultative Underwriting, Designing and Placements
(CT-RT&FU,D&P), Program ID – CPG42
(From: 13th to 15th February, 2023)

Relevance of the Program:-

In order to manage these risks the companies have to balance their portfolios. While designing and underwriting the company has to take into account the markets and placement of the risks in various forms keeping in view the diversification. The role of reinsurance in capacity building of an insurance company to write new and larger risks and absorb difficult risk cannot be over emphasised. It covers all perils including catastrophic risks. There are many different forms and types of reinsurance contracts and this enables reinsurers to take on the world's largest and most complex risks.

This workshop is to educate the insurance and reinsurance companies in deciding the designing of treaty programs and facultative risks and placing them along with underwriting considerations.

Program Objectives-

- I. Methods and various types of reinsurance
- II. How a Company's reinsurance programs interacts with its risk appetite
- III. What are the factors to be considered while designing re-insurance arrangements.
- IV. Analyse how reinsurance programs interact with portfolio management and underwriting practices.
