

Insurance Institute of India
College of Insurance, Kolkata
Classroom Training Session on Health Insurance: A Growing
Opportunity for Business and Security
Program ID – CPG32 (26th and 27th December, 2022)

Relevance of the Program:-

Health insurance segment in Indian Non-Life Insurance market has been growing consistently and has surpassed the major Motor Insurance segment to be crowned as the largest LoB.

It has evolved considerably over the past 3 decades of its existence in Indian insurance market. With advancement of medical technology and rapidly rising treatment cost, support of insurance mechanism to all citizens has been of paramount importance in order to secure “Health for All” !

Group members (Corporates), Individuals and the Masses, all including their family members need to be encompassed in the times to come to make India an insured society.

Making health insurance affordable for all by designing and implementing schemes scientifically makes for its viability for the use of all stakeholders like, the Insured, Insurers, Intermediaries and the health service providers.

Growing expectations of the people and the response of the regulator to make the health cover more comprehensive and robust are considered as challenges, as well as opportunities to tap this hugely underserved market.

Our program is designed to bring about a clear understanding of the risk, medical needs, modern medical technology, pricing and above all of tapping the market for the beckoning opportunities ahead.

Program Objectives:-

The program is designed to enable participants to:

- Know the current market practices and the medical infrastructure in India
- Evaluate the kind of policies prevalent in market for different categories of Insured.
- Understand the market heading for rapid change
- Bring in more effective role playing by the TPAs and Hospitals
- Control cost & fraud, to have an understanding on preventive health care and their effect on pricing of the health insurance products
