

College of Insurance
Insurance Institute of India, Mumbai
Comprehensive General Liability and Non-Financial Liabilities
Program ID: CPG5
(From: 22nd to 23rd June, 2020)

Relevance of the Program:-

Emergency situations can challenge even the most prepared company. To tackle such untoward incidents which may impact the survival of the company it is desirable that they put in place an adequate liability insurance cover. Civil or Legal Liability may arise out of Statutes, Contracts, Common Laws and Torts –Libel and Slander, Assault, Nuisance and Negligence. Liability Insurance has made rapid strides in the past few years in India, thanks to the global nature of business. This line of business covers techno-legal knowledge and offers very interesting solutions to the unforeseen liability situations that may arise from emerging and current businesses risks. The College of Insurance forges together a theoretical understanding of concepts with practical cases to enable participants to critically appreciate and comprehend Non-financial lines liabilities. The program will be conducted by Senior Practitioners well versed with all aspects of Underwriting and Claims of Liability Insurance.

Program Objective:-

At the end of the two day work-shop, the participants would be able to:
