

College of Insurance
Insurance Institute of India, Mumbai
Appreciation of Insurance Regulations - Life
Program ID: CPL7
(From: 25th to 26th November, 2019)

Relevance of the Program:-

The Insurance industry in India opened up in the year 1999, alongwith the formation of the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India whose role is to develop and regulate the Insurance industry business and the players. During its life of close to two decades, the IRDAI has issued a number of regulations and guidelines on various subjects. These include Regulation on Registration of Insurance companies, Licensing of Agents, Insurance Product Design, Valuation, Financial Reporting, Policyholders' rights protection etc., It is imperative that all the players in the industry should comply with these Regulations issued by the Regulator on various legal aspects relating to insurance business while carrying out their business. Any breach of these Regulations can attract penalties.

To comply with these Regulations, one should have a thorough knowledge and understanding about the various Regulations, including their compliance, and their implications for the business. This has become essential for executives in Insurance companies who are responsible for conduct of the insurance business and ensuring its compliance to the regulation.

The module is designed to appraise participants on the various regulations of IRDAI and discuss their implications.

Program Objective:-

- This module would equip the participant with knowledge of the important regulations and their implications, both from a compliance angle and a business point of view.
